

Class # 10Learning Objectives for Psychosexual Disorders

1. Understand the sexual response cycle as described by Masters and Johnson.
2. Be able to categorize the Sexual Disorders as described in the DSM IV according to the above.
3. Understand the concept of Paraphilia as existing on a spectrum of normal to pathological functioning.
4. Be able to diagnose and differentiate the Paraphilias using DSM IV criteria.

Class # 12Learning Objectives for Dissociative Disorders

5. Be able to describe the concept and functions of dissociation.
6. Be able to describe the relationship between dissociation and trauma.
7. Be able to diagnose and differentiate the Dissociative Disorders using DSM IV criteria.
8. Be able to list 4 other (non-dissociative) diagnoses in the differential diagnosis of Dissociative Disorders.

Class # 13Learning Objectives for Dementia and Delirium

9. Be able to diagnose Delirium and Dementia using DSM IV criteria.
10. Be able to list features that distinguish Delirium from Dementia.
11. Understand the epidemiology, diagnosis, pathophysiology, and treatment approaches of Alzheimer's Dementia as the prototypical Dementia.
12. Be able to name 7 causes each of Dementia and Delirium.

Class # 14-15Learning Objectives for Mood Disorders

1. Be able to list the criteria for Mood Disorders according to the DSM IV
2. Understand the risk factors and epidemiology for mood disorders

3. Be able to name 7 factors that increase the risk of suicide
4. Be able to name the types of treatments available for Major Depressive Disorder and Bipolar Disorder